

Colleen Huddleson, MBA, BFA, Assistant Dean, Assistant Professor
University of Saint Francis
School of Creative Arts
2701 Spring Street
Fort Wayne, IN 46808
chuddleson@sf.edu

A native of Cincinnati, Colleen began her career at the University of Saint Francis in 2005 after completing her Masters of Business Administration degree. As Assistant Dean in the School of Creative Arts she coordinates and applies for grants to support community outreach programs such as the Young Master's Academy: After School Art Program; the Pre-College Summer Academy for the Arts; the Outdoor Gallery – I Am Art - Public Art Project; the Summer Art in the Morning Program for Children; Fort Wayne's Global Village on Stage: A Celebration of Diversity in the Arts; the Closer Look Lecture Series and multiple exhibitions. She also supports the School in a variety of areas including program development, accreditation, special event coordination, publications, reports, data analysis, strategic planning, budget development, management and teaching various courses.

Colleen serves on the Board of the Fort Wayne Museum of Art and is a member of their Education Committee. She also serves on the Education Committee for Artlink. In addition to her support of the arts, Colleen is an avid Historic Preservationist who serves as the Chair on the City of Fort Wayne Historic Preservation Commission. She also served on the Board of the ARCH, Fort Wayne's non-profit historic preservation organization and is a member of the Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana and ACRES Land Trust. She has volunteered on many Historic Preservation activities such as the Allen County Lincoln Highway Survey, historic house cleanups and various workshops.

Colleen graduated Cum Laude from the Savannah College of Art and Design with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Historic Preservation. She completed two internships in Objects Conservation at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and worked for the Historic Landmarks Foundation on the Interim Report of DeKalb County Indiana.